Brian Stenerson (Lnl) / Virtual Inspections

- Virtual inspections program debuted in November 2020.
- The program was initiated to take pressure off field officers.
- If an inspection is 15 mins or less and does not involve occupancy or final inspections, it may be completed virtually.
- Lnl is always expanding and trying new ways to improve the VI program.
- Questions? Call Lnl at 360-902-5299 or call Brian Stenerson directly at 509-222-9373

State of Washington / Dennis Straley

Annual Inspector training occurred virtually this year. Inspectors are making sure power is turned OFF during inspections. If PPE is necessary due to an energized facility, it must be provided. Otherwise, the inspection will be rescheduled. Keep an eye on Electrical Currents Lnl newsletter for upcoming fee and rules changes.

City of Bellevue / Chuck Murray

The city is two weeks out on Plan Reviews. Ken Copeland, Electrical Combination Building Inspector, is retiring. His position will need to be filled. The number of inspections requests have stayed steady over the past five years.

Snohomish PUD / Rob Marks

Increased incentives through mid-2021. Non lighting trade ally webinar on Thursday, Feb. 25 (see SnoPUD website for more details). Lots of upgrades to Lighting Workbook so help SnoPUD process customer workbooks more quickly and efficiently. Indoor horticulture lighting and humidification is big business. Many customers are switching to LED lighting and realizing a tremendous savings.

Energy Code/Dan Steinert

2018 Seattle Energy Code adoption is March 15, 2021. Duane Jonlin has been giving lots of presentations, so people are educated and ready to comply.

IEEE / Cameron Clark

Virtual Power Quality Analysis presentation on Wed., Feb. 17, 7-8 PM.

ELPN/Brook Walker

2/18/2021 Roadway and Outdoor Lighting Applications

3/18/2021 Utility Programs & Incentives

7/8/2021 Mariners vs Yankees

8/26/2021 Golf Classic

New Business

Dennis Straley (Lnl) will give the March education piece: Energy Disconnect.
